

Information Indicating Necessity (or Unnecessity) for Entrants to Take an Obligatory Preliminary Medical Examination

Any entrant applying for the following particular specialties (specializations) to cover them at Astrakhan State University must pass an obligatory preliminary medical examination:

13.03.02	Power Industry & Electrical Engineering
35.03.06	Agricultural Engineering
35.04.06	Agricultural Engineering
36.05.01	Veterinary
44.03.01	Pedagogical Education
44.03.02	Education in Psychology & Pedagogics
44.03.03	Special (Speech Pathology) Education
44.03.05	Pedagogical Education (with two profiles)
44.04.01	Pedagogical Education
44.04.02	Education in Psychology & Pedagogics

The medical examination shall be taken as per the list of physicians, laboratory and functional research and analyses, general and additional medical contraindications, which are stipulated by the Order #302n of the Ministry of Healthcare & Social Development of the Russian Federation of April 12, 2011 “Concerning Approval of Harmful and/or Hazardous Production Factors & Works whose Execution Requires Obligatory Preliminary & Periodical Medical Examinations; Concerning Approval of Regulations for Execution of Obligatory Preliminary & Periodical Medical Examinations of Employees Engaged in Hard Works & in Works with Harmful and/or Hazardous Conditions”.

The medical examination may be taken at any medical facility legally entitled to execute medical examination of individuals prior to their employment.